2022 CSANZ New Zealand ASM - a great success!

CSANZ22

CSANZ New Zealand
Annual Scientific Meeting

Te Pae, Christchurch | 21-23 June 2022

www.csanzasm.nz

Thank you to the Convenor and Organising Committee of CSANZ New Zealand ASM who planned some inspiring sessions including those addressing important equity issues, historical and current Māori relationships as a whole, and within health and specialist services. The faculty, including International Speaker, Dr John Mandrola were impressive.

All abstracts submitted to the meeting are available to view here online at Heart Lung and Circulation.

Congratulations to all the NZ Young Investigator Award Prize Winners:

Evie Templeton – Young Investigator Award for her work on “Harnessing the power of omics: discovering novel microRNAs and protein biomarkers of acute kidney injury in acute heart failure”

Ellen Woodcock – Allied Health Investigator Award for her work on “Spironolactone and atrial remodelling in patients with paroxysmal atrial fibrillation (PAF)”

John Ramos – Nurse Investigator Award for his work on “Hospitalisation during lockdown – Patient’s beds-eye view”

The full recording of the meeting is available for a limited time - access here \(NZ members only\).
