CSANZ and HLC Appointments

Following the recent resignations of Dr Paul Bridgman as Chair of the Education Committee and Prof Stephen Duffy as Honorary Secretary, CSANZ Members are advised the following appointments to these roles.

Prof Jenny Deague (WA) has been appointed by the Board as Chair of the Education Committee and Dr Mayanna Lund (NZ) has been appointed CSANZ Honorary Secretary.

A/Prof Salvatore Pepe has been appointed in-coming Editor-in-Chief of Heart Lung and Circulation. A/Prof Pepe will take over the role at the conclusion of Prof Robert Denniss' term at the end of 2023. Prof Denniss will stay on the Board until the November, 2022 Board meeting and a special ceremony will be held at the 2023 AGM to acknowledge Prof Denniss' service and achievements as HLC Editor-in-Chief.

New MBS items from 1 Nov 2022

On 1 November, 2022 two new MBS items (11736 and 11737) will be introduced for remote monitoring of cardiac ILR devices. These new items will mirror current in-rooms MBS items allowing remote services to be performed. Refer to the Quick Reference Guide for further details on MBS Online.

In addition, eight MBS items for cardiothoracic surgery items will be amended to incentivise the use of advanced techniques and procedures. See full details of these changes on the MBS website.

Happy NZ National Allied Health Day | 14 Oct 2022

Allied Health Professions Day

2022 Aotearoa • 14 October

A typical day for me is...

Every day for us is different. We could be in Cardiac stress testing, applying, analysing and reporting heart monitors or involved with our specialist focus of Cardiac Implantable Devices (Pacemakers, ICDs, CRT D/P devices and Reveals).

I love my job because....

We get to serve a very diverse population of patients and I enjoy the interactions we get to have with them. We are constantly upskilling and learning and I am a part of a supportive, energetic and fun team which makes work enjoyable every day.

International Keynote Speakers

ERIC HORLICK

TARA KARAMLOU

Queenstown is ready for you! There's still time to plan your trip to the 2022 Adult Congenital Heart Disease Symposium, 8 - 10 December 2022.

The program spans three full days of presentations on a range of topics including ACHD intervention, Fontan, hypoplastic left heart syndrome, atrial septal defect, difficult case studies, with new sessions for Fellows in Training and Nurse research presentations. Plus don't forget the much anticipated Great Debate.

We are looking forward to all the presentations and to the International Keynote Speakers:

Dr Eric Horlick, University of Toronto - Interventional Keynote Address:

Fontan intervention and other stories - thoughts on evidence based intervention with a relative dearth of evidence.

Dr Tara Karamlou, Cleveland Clinic - Keynote Address:

ACHD patients across the lifespan: the importance of early surgery, ongoing empiric surveillance, and transition care.
